

Be part of our team.

Junior Consultant (m/f/d): September 2023

By joining Roland Berger, you choose an employer who has supported diversity of cultures, mentalities, and perspectives since its founding.

As a Junior Consultant you will be exposed to a variety of different industries and strategic issues including; strategy alignment, business model, process and organizational structures and technology strategies.

Your profile

- You are in your final year of your master's program and you will graduate in the summer
- You have demonstrated excellence with very good academic records
- You have shown business sense during previous internships or other employments
- Working-knowledge of one of the Scandinavian languages and English are required

Are you curious? We look forward to receiving your application via our website join.rolandberger.com.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact Katja Monschau +49 160 7449464