

Trainee, Mandatum Private Equity

Mandatum Private Equity is looking for a full-time, fixed term Trainee to join the team.

Mandatum Private Equity (MPE) is part of soon to be established Mandatum Asset Management (MAM), a business created through the merger of the different asset management functions within Sampo Group. At inception, MAM will employ approximately 100 FTEs and will have about 24bn euros in assets under management.

Your role

As a Trainee, you will be part of the MPE team's day-to-day operations by for example assisting with financial modelling, sourcing and evaluating new investment opportunities, supporting portfolio company development and participating in work related to new investments. Your typical tasks as a Trainee include financial modelling, company and industry analysis and presenting your conclusions.

What we expect from you

- We hope that you are enthusiastic about entrepreneurship, investing and growth companies
- You are in the final years of your studies or have completed your master's degree in finance, industrial management or similar field with a strong academic record
- Strong financial modelling skills
- Previous work (internship or full-time position) experience from e.g. investment banking, consulting or other relevant industry
- Excellent communication skills, including preparation of presentation materials (PowerPoint)
- Strong analytical skills and command of relevant tools (Excel)
- Fluent in at least English, knowledge of any other relevant languages is seen as an asset
- Hands-on attitude and ability to learn new things proactively

The preferred starting time for the Trainee would be in the beginning of April 2021 and would continue until the end of June 2021 (with some flexibility on both ends).

How to apply

Send your application, CV and transcript of records in English by March 7th. Please act swiftly as the position will be filled as soon as a suitable candidate is found. All the interviewed candidates will receive direct feedback on their application process.

Apply here: <https://mandatumlife.teamtailor.com/jobs/1080785-trainee-mandatum-private-equity/applications/new>

For additional information on the position, please contact Portfolio Manager (MPE) Rami Salonen, at +358 40 728 6134.